

December 4, 2009

McLane Advanced Technologies Named to the Texas A&M University's 5th Annual AGGIE 100 List

COLLEGE STATION, TX. – McLane Advanced Technologies (MAT) of Temple, Texas is among the top 100 companies named to the 5th Annual Aggie 100 honoring the fastest-growing companies in the world owned or operated by Texas A&M University former students. MAT was recognized as number 13 on the list with a growth rate of over 77% in the last three years. The Aggie 100 honors graduates from across disciplines and is a program of the Center for New Ventures and Entrepreneurship in Texas A&M University's Mays Business School.

MAT provides custom application development, logistics and IT solutions to military, government, and commercial clients around the world. Since its inception in 2004, MAT has grown to employ more than 420 personnel worldwide ranging from military veterans to commercial software developers. In its short history, McLane Advanced Technologies has implemented many major projects for both public sector and commercial customers. In April of 2004, MAT was awarded a multi-million dollar contract to modernize three of the Army's logistics systems. MAT has fielded the project, known as Standard Army Maintenance System-Enhanced (SAMS-E), to more than 14,000 users worldwide.

"McLane Advanced Technologies is proud to be among the companies named to the Aggie 100 list," said Chief Operating Officer and President of the Government Division of MAT, Robert Reeves. "As a company that employs many Texas A&M alumni, we understand the tradition of leadership and excellence represented by the university. MAT is honored to be recognized for extending that leadership in the corporate world."

The 100 Aggie-owned or managed companies with the highest compound annual revenue growth from 2006 to 2008 were recognized at a formal luncheon at Texas A&M University on Friday, Nov. 6, 2009.

"Texas A&M University and the Mays Business School's Center for New Ventures and Entrepreneurship have built a tradition of pride among former students who have been named to the 2009 Aggie 100, as well as those who have made it any point in our history," said Dr. Richard H. Lester, Executive Director of the Mays Business School's Center for New Ventures and Entrepreneurship. "We are extremely proud to honor such fine businesses honored and even more proud that they speak to the legacy of the values Texas A&M instills in all of our students."

The Aggie 100 list in its entirety may be viewed at www.aggie100.com.

About McLane Advanced Technologies

McLane Advanced Technologies, LLC provides both government and commercial customers with custom application development, logistics and IT Solutions. For more information, please visit our website at: www.mclaneat.com or call 254-770-6165.

Media Contact:

Josh Volney
(254) 771-6385
josh.volney@mclaneat.com
www.mclaneat.com